YFL Announces New Awards and Bursaries to Yukon Students

The Yukon Federation of Labour announced today that they have created 3 youth awards/bursaries for Yukon students.

Kait Dinunzio, Youth Director YFL states “ it is time for the labour movement to reach out to our youth on a number of very important areas and to let youth know the importance of worker safety, the history of the labour movement, workers rights, human rights and how youth can make a difference in our movement”.

The Yukon Federation of Labour is set to offer one award to students in grades 5, 6 or 7, a second award to students in grade 8, 9, 10 or 11 and a bursary for a student who will be pursuing post-secondary education this fall. Students are encouraged to prepare an essay discussing one of the various topics the YFL has selected. Entries will be accepted at the YFL office until 5:00 p.m. on June 5, 2007. Entries can be faxed, mailed, brought directly to the office or emailed. Awards will be presented on June 12, 2007 at the YFL office. This is only one initiative of many that YFL has begun to undertake to engage Yukon youth. Further information can be obtained by emailing yfl@yukonfed.com or by calling 667-6676 or visit our website at www.yukonfed.com.

The Yukon Federation of Labour, labour`s voice in the Yukon, represents 4,000 members and is a charter member of the Canadian Labour Congress which represents 3.2 million workers in Canada.
