

NEWS RELEASE

November 10, 2006

For immediate release:

YFL pays tribute to our veterans and current members on Remembrance Day November 11

The Yukon Federation of Labour would like to pay our deepest respect to those men and women who have served our country and who presently serve in missions around the world.

Alex Furlong, President of YFL said today that “as a country we must honour and respect those men and women who served and continue to serve our country and for those who paid the ultimate sacrifice”.

Furlong further states “at times in our busy lives we sometimes forget what those brave men and women did and continue to do to ensure our freedom, peace and liberty and for us to live in a great territory and country”.

The Yukon Federation of Labour acknowledges those sacrifices, Lest We Forget

The Yukon Federation of Labour, labour’s voice in the Yukon, represents 4,000 members and is a charter member of the Canadian Labour Congress which represents 3.2 million workers in Canada.

-30-

Contact: Alex Furlong 667-6676