YFL applauds members of Yukon Legislature

The Yukon Federation of Labour said today that the recent passing of second reading of the anti smoking bill is a positive move for all Yukon workers`.

Alex Furlong, President of YFL states “We are pleased that all members of the legislature have voted in second reading to move forward this very important piece of legislation”.

Furlong states “This will now bring Yukon to the forefront in Canada with progressive legislation that will protect workers health and safety”.

Furlong concludes by stating that “Again, we want to thank all members of the legislature for putting worker health and safety first and to the Minister for his support in this important piece of legislation and we urge all members to support this bill at third and final reading”.

The Yukon Federation of Labour, labour`s voice in the Yukon, represents 4,000 members and is a charter member of the Canadian Labour Congress which represents 3.2 million workers in Canada.
